ENCINITAS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DEBUTED INAUGURAL “MEET YOUR ELECTED OFFICIALS AND COMMUNITY LEADERS” EVENT AT ICA NORTH OCTOBER 30th

Encinitas, Calif. (November 6, 2023) – The Encinitas Chamber of Commerce debuted its inaugural “Meet Your Elected Officials and Community Leaders” event on Monday, October 30, 2023 at the Institute of Contemporary Art (ICA) North. This catered reception provided a great opportunity for guests to meet and connect with elected officials, key City of Encinitas officials and organizations, VIPs and business representatives from Encinitas and neighboring cities.

Congressman Mike Levin, Senator Catherine Blakespear, Assemblymember Tasha Boerner and Mayor Tony Kranz all spoke at the event about their accomplishments and future plans for Encinitas, while the Encinitas City Council and other community leaders such as San Diego County Sheriff Captain Christopher Lawrence were in attendance. Officials then mingled with members of the community at the reception to share ideas and answer questions about programs and policies. TOOTRiS Child Care on Demand was the presenting sponsor; EDCO was the event sponsor.

“Our ‘Meet Your Elected Officials and Community Leaders’ event is a unique opportunity for our community to connect directly with the leaders who shape the decisions affecting our daily lives,” said Sherry Yardley, CEO of the Encinitas Chamber of Commerce. “We believe that open dialogue and engagement between residents and local officials are crucial for a thriving community and look forward to bringing this event to the community again in the future.”
